MAINLAND NEWS.

[From the Vancouver News.]

The work of clearing the Brighouse estate is going on slowly. Nearly 200 Chinamen are employed, but do not seem to be progressing as they should. The trouble which affected them for some time have been got over by the Tyhees conceding to the demands of the Mongolians. From the present rate of progress the contract is not likely to prove a paying investment.

A cable will be laid between Vancouver and Moodyville some time during the present week.

Word has been received at the C. P. R. office here that two special trains loaded with immigrants for Vancouver are now on the way to the coast.

A letter has been received by the C. P. R. to the effect that one of the principals of an immense English manufacturing company, which employs over 3,000 hands in their establishment, is now on the way to Vancouver with a view to selecting a site for the establishment of a branch of their business here, and also to report on the advantages and facilities for entering into a large hop-growing scheme. The firm referred to have extensive connections in Australia, New Zealand and the United States and it is thought that Vancouver will be a very advantageous point for transacting business with these countries.

Stevedore York put off from Moodyville in a Siwash canoe on Tuesday morning to board the ship George. On reaching the ship Mr. York got on board, while the Siwashes remained in the canoe and paddled behind the ship. When in the swiftest part of the Narrows the canoe was caught in a tide rifle and upset. A long and strong struggle for life then ensued, the Siwashes fighting the eddies and currents with the desperation of doomed men, and were at length successful in reaching their canoe, and righting it, got safe to shore. The Indians suffered severely from their long and cold bath but are all right again and working at the Moodyville mill as usual.

Enquiries from points between the coast and Winnipeg for lumber are becoming more numerous daily. One of our most prominent manufacturers said yesterday that the mills here are able to compete on almost any line of lumber to Winnipeg and on a few lines as far east as Montreal and New York. A number of shipments have already been made to the former city. A gentleman from New York was in the city on Friday and took samples of lumber away with him, which he will expose on the New York market, and if it suits the purpose required will make arrangements with the mill here to take their whole output.

An Unselfish War.

Gladstone's electorate review of the last volume of Greville's memories will appear in the forthcoming number of the English Historical Review: The most interesting passage is that in which he defends the Crimean war as a European protest against the wrong doing of a single state—an advance in civilization and method of action favorable in itself to peace. "The Crimean war," he adds, "may claim this rare eulogium: It was an unselfish war."

LICENSES IN COWICHAN.

Mr. DUNSMUIR'S bill, introduced by THEO. DAVIE, giving to two magistrates and a railway president power to issue liquor licenses in any municipality on a line of railway, even in defiance of the sentiment of the community, has been unfavorably commented upon by the press of the province. The operation of the act may be viewed in two aspects—its effect from a temperance point of view, and its infringement on the rights of municipalities. The latter, to our mind, is by far the more important of the two, because the law is a flagrant usurpation of power on the part of the legislature and a complete nullification of "local option." It is the creation of a second licensing board for the purpose of overriding the decision of the first, and while possessing co-ordinate powers, it will only use them to do that which the municipality does not want done—to issue licenses refused by the properly constituted board. Referring to this act, the Vancouver Herald says:

"The people are not consulted about the matter at all, and they are treated as if they had no rights whatever in connection with it. If the fight over the temperance question is to resolve itself into arbitrary legislation and the rights of the people, we are going with the people. No community will long submit, if in earnest, to be treated after this fashion, and no person who values local independence will long submit to arbitrary interference. Every organized community should have the privilege to regulate the liquor traffic within its own bounds and not to be subjected to the will of parties who have next to no interest in its well-being. We are very much surprised to find so large a number of the members of the House giving countenance to legislation of this character. It is unjustifiable on any grounds that could be urged in its defence, and it is decidedly wrong to force upon a community what they are opposed to."

If, after this slap in the face, the people of Cowichan return a supporter of the DAVIE administration, they will prove themselves unworthy of their trust, and show that they believe themselves incapable of managing their own affairs. The bill was introduced by THEODORE DAVIE, brother to the Premier, who allowed it to pass because he dare not thwart the wishes of the "boss," whose servant THEODORE was. It was vigorously opposed by the Hon. Mr. BEAVEN, but with the government against him, the leader of the opposition was powerless to defeat the obnoxious bill. Had Mr. SUTTIE been alive, and in the House, he would have defeated DUNSMUIR'S whiskey bill, or at once have resigned from the government.

SUPREME COURT.

[Before Mr. Justice Walkem.]

The Court sat at 10 a. m. to-day.

Wilson vs. Huson—This was a case of disputed account, the defendant claiming that the action was brought too soon, as he was entitled to a credit of three months on the goods purchased, that being the credit which his father, from whom he had taken over the business, had by arrangement with plaintiff. The Court held the defence untenable on such a ground, and moreover that defendant himself had proved that no agreement for credit had been made between him and the plaintiff. Judgment for plaintiff's claim and costs. Mr. Taylor for plaintiff; Mr. Walls for defendant.

McCallum vs. Morrow—This was an action brought by Capt. McCallum for partition of land. It involved some intricate legal questions arising out of the agreement made between the parties. Judgment was given in favor of plaintiff with the costs of the action. Plaintiff was awarded the 25 acres, with the buildings thereon, (out of the 320 acres) which he elected to take before action, as satisfying the terms of the agreement. Inquiries were directed to be made in the Registrar's office as to whether all parties interested in the land were before the Court, and if so, the remaining 295 acres are to be sold at auction on conditions to be settled by the Registrar. Accounts between the parties, since Crown patent issued, to be taken on the basis of each being equally interested in the property. The product of the sale to be paid into Court, and after deducting plaintiff's costs and the expenses attending the auction, to be divided equally between the parties, in the event of no question arising in respect of the account, but in the event of any such question arising the money to be retained in Court and further considerations reserved. Mr. Wilson for plaintiff; Mr. Hett for defendant.

Johnson, Walker & Co. vs. Robelee, Norris & Yates.—Judgment was given for the plaintiffs, for $889.94 with costs against Robelee; and Robelee's counterclaim was dismissed with costs. The plaintiffs were declared to have a lien for the $889.94 on Messrs. Norris & Yates' land under the Mechanics lien law. The action was referred to the Registrar to enquire as to whether there were any other lienholders, and if so, to make them parties in his office and take evidence as to the nature of their liens, the date of the work done or material furnished by them on Mr. Norris' building, whether the account was due on a continuing contract or otherwise, and finally to establish the priorities between the different lienholders (if any.) Further directions and the question of costs to be reserved until after the Registrar's report. Mr. Helmcken for plaintiffs; Mr. T. Davie and Mr. Jay for defendants; consented to the decree.

MR. G. B. WRIGHT

Gives a Glowing Account of the Pacific Province in the East.

Mr. G. B. Wright, whilst in Winnipeg, en route to this city, when interviewed by a Manitoban reporter stated that British Columbia is on the eve of important developments in her mining and timber interests. The passage of the C. P. R. through the Rocky and Selkirk ranges, has rendered accessible an extensive and valuable mining region. From the southern boundary of the province to the Big Bend of the Columbia, a wide belt extends, abounding in veins of argentiferous galena, and many of the streams affording good placer mining. Upon south of Golden City, and to the head of the Columbia lakes, these lodes are very wide and permanent, and carry silver in sufficient quantities to make its reduction very profitable. Upon the western slope of the Selkirks, valuable lodes were discovered last season, which will be worked extensively during this year. Sampling and reduction works will soon be erected upon the line of the C. P. R. and thus individual miners or small companies will be enabled to prosecute mining upon a small scale. Hitherto the difficulty has been that a vein of ore, no matter how rich, could only be made to pay by the expenditure of a large sum, first, to get the ore to the line of the railway, and after that to transport it thousands of miles to be reduced. By the construction of smelters in the vicinity of the mines, each company can extract its ore in large or small quantities, and find an immediate cash market for the product. In Cariboo of gold-bearing sulphurets which have been known to exist near Williams Creek, are also in a fair way of being re-opened. So much progress has been made in recent methods of working refractory ore, that iron and copper pyrites, which formerly would not pay the expense of the complicated processes deemed necessary, can now be made to yield these precious metals at a less cost, and yield rich returns. One stamp mill, with chlorination works attached, will begin operations in a few days, and probably two others will be constructed during the present summer. To understand the effect of these upon a country like British Columbia, it is only necessary to be familiar with the results of the

THE UPPER COLUMBIA RIVER,

THE IMMENSE VEINS

GOLD DISCOVERIES OF CALIFORNIA

in 1849, or the opening up of the silver lodes of Virginia City in Nevada in 1860. Our Pacific province is confidently looking for the flush times of former days. The Legislature, fully appreciating the importance of aiding this prospective development, has offered assistance to companies who are prepared to enter upon such works in a systematic manner. It has authorized the Government to offer to any company who will expend in a proper manner a sufficient sum in opening mines and erect crushing or smelting works, aid to further proceed, in the form of a guaranteed loan, amounting to one-half its previous expenditure. It also further offers a bonus for amounting to one-fourth their expenditure, subject of course to such regulations as the Minister of Mines may establish. The province will receive in increased revenue ten times their probable outlay from the taxes paid by a larger population. The timber lands of the coast and interior of British Columbia are attracting a good deal of attention. During the last year large tracts were purchased from the government at the ruling price, $2 50 per acre, mostly by foreigners. Fearing that the entire timber limits might be thus monopolized, the Legislature, which has just adjourned, increased the price of these lands

MORE THAN FOUR-FOLD.

They also imposed other conditions upon the acquisition of timber tracts, such as the erection of saw-mills, etc.

Although British Columbia is not essentially an agricultural country, yet in the aggregate there are many hundreds of thousands of acres of magnificent farming lands. The crops there rarely fail, and the wheat yield upon the Spallumcheen and Okanagan valley and in the Lillooet district cannot be beaten in any portion of the world. Within the next two years the increased productions of this western region will show Eastern Canada that in some respects her greatest source of wealth lies in her western Province.

COUN. GRANT RESPONDS.

To THE EDITOR OF THE TIMES:

SIR,—The Colonist published in its yesterday's issue, what it is pleased to style "A Stirring Letter about the Council," signed by Vindex. In the avenger's letter there is only a small spark of truth. When the anonymous writer states his case correctly, and signs his name thereto, he will be supplied with all the information in the possession of the Council. Vindex, Councillor Higgins' new-found friend, will scarcely be thanked for the position which he has placed him in, as he states that, as editor of the Colonist, he voted against Councillor Higgins; but at the last municipal election he voted for him, as he was out of newspaper life." If Vindex is a friend of Councillor Higgins, he only damns him by his praise, for he might just as well have said that as editor of the Colonist Councillor Higgins could not be trusted. My idea is, that if a man cannot be trusted while occupying such an important position, he cannot be depended upon under any circumstances, and that it is only men capable of being a party to crooked transactions who are ever ready to impute dishonest motives to others. COUNCILLOR GRANT.

Victoria, April 18, 1887.

"VINDEX'S" VERACITY.

To THE EDITOR OF THE TIMES:

SIR,—A highway scribbler, signing himself Vindex, in Sunday's Colonist, states that the "Council can spend $8,000 or $10,000 in levelling off the top of Fort street." The Council certainly could have done so, but they did not. The sum paid was $998.20. This will give the public an idea of how much dependence can be placed upon the statements of writers of Vindex's class.

A COUNCILLOR.

Street Attractions.

The growling of a bear cub and its antics on the corner of Douglas and Johnson streets this p. m. attracted a considerable crowd. It was held by a chain, but displayed considerable agility in its movements.

A prisoner in the cooler in rear of the City Hall, alarmed the locality with his hideous yellings. His roarings resembled those of an infuriated brute rather than a human being. A motley crowd collected on Douglas street listening to the strange sounds being made.

A GREAT SENSATION.

A Letter Written by Parnell Approving the Phœnix Park Murder

Produces a Great Sensation in Political Circles this Afternoon.

THE PARNELL LETTER.

LONDON, April 18.—The Times, as a proof of its assertion at the conclusion of its article on "Parnellism and Crime" states that it has further documentary evidence and prints a fac simile of a letter signed by Parnell and supposed to have been addressed to Egan to pacify his subordinates, when Parnell publicly denounced the Phœnix Park murders. The letter fills one side of an ordinary sheet of note paper and is in a strange handwriting, and signed: "Yours very truly, Chas. S. Parnell." Parnell's handwriting is at the top of the other leaf. The Times suggests that the signature was so written in order that it could be torn off if necessary. The letter, which is dated April 15, 1882. The address is as follows:

DEAR SIR:—I am not surprised at your friend's anger, but he and you should know that to denounce the murder is the only course open to us. To do that promptly was plainly our best policy; but you can tell him and all others concerned that although I regret the accident of Lord Cavendish's death I cannot admit that Burke got no more than his deserts. You are at liberty to show this to others whom you can trust also; but let not my address be known. He can write to the House of Commons."

The Times says Parnell cannot hope that a simple refutation of the letter can have any effect on the public. He must bring more solid proof to annul the effect of the disclosure.

The Globe commenting on Parnell's letter says: He said also that suspicion was already directed against a certain person as the forger. In further commenting on the letter the Globe says that until the horrible accusation that Parnell wrote the letter is substantiated we shall refrain from describing it.

The Pall Mall Gazette says: Until the authenticity of the letter shall be absolutely proved there will be no need to discuss it.

The St. James Gazette says: The letter is so grave a document that it will not do to regard it as genuine untill Parnell shall be heard from concerning it.

Several Irish members of parliament departed for Dublin this a. m. to compare the handwriting in the letter attributed to Parnell with that of the person suspected as being its author.

The alleged letter of Parnell, supposed to have been addressed to Egan, relative to the Phœnix Park murderers, which the Times published this morning, has caused immense excitement among all parties.

In an interview to-day Clancy, Parnellite member for Dublin county, branded the letter as an infamous concoction, and declared that it bears internal evidence of forgery. He said also that suspicion was already directed against a certain person as its forger.

Irish members of parliament assert that as the person to whom it is purported the letter was sent does not wish the address disclosed and the fact that only the signature of Parnell is given as the only part of his hand writing is by itself urged by the Home Rulers as positive proof that the whole thing is a grave fraud. According to them, while it would be a difficult matter to obtain enough specimens of Parnell's handwriting to enable a forger to imitate to an extent necessary to palm off the whole letter as being his and genuine, it would not be difficult to obtain his separated.

Parnell states to the agent of the Associated Press that he will categorically deny that he wrote the letter. Parnell will make his denial in the House of Commons. The editor of the Times will be summoned to the bar of the Commons to explain the authorship of the letter.

AN IMPORTANT WHIP.

LONDON, April 18.—A five-line whip published to-day urges all Conservatives to attend the meeting of the Commons to-night, so as to be on hand to vote for the second reading of the Irish Crimes Act Amendment Bill. Members began to drop into the House at an unusually early hour to-day in order to secure their seats, the belief being that another scene similar to that of Friday night will occur during the evening session.

ANOTHER STEAMER WRECKED.

LONDON, April 18.—Later dispatches confirm the report that a steamer has been wrecked off Bonificio, Corsica. The name of the vessel is Lanaina. Of the two hundred and fifty passengers which she carried fifty have been saved. Help has been sent to the wreck, but the sea is rough and it will be difficult to get near her.

THE CHURCH AND THE K. OF L.

LONDON, April 18.—A dispatch to Reuter's Telegram Co., from Rome, says His Holiness the Pope approved of the course of Cardinal Gibbons and encouraged him in his action with reference to the Knights of Labor. Cardinal Gibbons has secured the adherence of Cardinal Manning and will appeal to other Bishops for support.

AN IRISH INDUSTRY.

An agreement has been signed for the formation of a joint stock company for the manufacture of Irish wools and other textiles. The headquarters of the company will be at Dublin. Messrs. White and Tyson, merchants, will shortly go to America to establish connections for the new company.

Julie Manberg, a talented actress of the Berlin Deutsche Theatre, has died suddenly.

BEACHED BOULOGNE.

Admiral Franklin, of the United States Navy, has arrived at Boulogne.

WRECK AND LOSS OF LIFE.

It is reported that an English steamer has foundered off Bonificio, Corsica, and that 150 lives were lost.

SOCIALISTS CONVICTED.

BERLIN, April 18.—The trial of 24 Socialists, charged with being members of illegal secret societies has just been concluded at Posen. Nine were convicted and sentenced to various short terms of imprisonment.

Stagnant Water.

The attention of our new Sanitary officer is directed to a pool of fetid water on the property between North Park and Frederick streets. It will be, if not drained off, a fruitful source of malarial and typhoid fevers. Mr. Deasy's duties, we believe, are wide enough to embrace nuisances of this kind.

THE YUKON EXPEDITION.

Dr. Dawson's Expedition to Leave Ottawa on Wednesday --Its Object.

OTTAWA, April 17.—The Canadian government's expedition to the Yukon country leaves here on Wednesday. It will consist of Dr. Dawson, Assistant Director of the Canadian Geological Survey, two subordinate members of the survey, and Dominion Land Surveyor Ogilvie. The chief object of the expedition is to locate and make a preliminary survey of the gold fields in northern British Columbia. Strong representations have come from mining companies at Seattle, W. T., which desire to acquire mining rights in the district, but will not invest capital unless the Canadian government gives them a sure title, as miners are reported to be rushing into Canadian territory, east of the 141st meridian. Messrs. Dawson and Ogilvie have been created, by an order in Council, Police Commissioners for British Columbia and the N. W. Territories, in case of an emergency arising. The expedition will traverse part of Alaska to reach the base of operations, and a safe conduct permit has been obtained from the U. S. authorities.

OTTAWA NOTES.

Happenings at the Capital---Sir Chas. Tupper---The New Customs Regulations.

It is understood that Senator Josiah Barr Plumb, the new Speaker of the Senate, who is an American by birth, intends doing the honors in a social sense on an elaborate scale this session.

Sir Charles Tupper is reported to have aged considerably in the last two years. Yet his health is good and his powers for departmental work as great as ever. He rises early, eats three square meals a day, works in his office all day and in his rooms up to 12 o'clock at night. Latterly he has struck dismay throughout the other departments by proclaiming it his unalterable decision that if the revenue will not go up the expenditure must come down, and that the pruning knife must be applied to the estimates unflinchingly. Consequently there is woe in Gath and tribulation in the streets of Askelon. Sir Charles is supposed to be preparing something tremendous in the way of a budget speech, from the way he is working. Other members are reported to have been working equally as hard and effectively.

Ministers Foster and White have returned to the capital from South Victoria, where they were on a stumping tour in aid of Mr. Adam Hudspeth, who was illegally elected on the 22nd February, resigned his seat and was again seeking re-election.

The latest regulations promulgated by the Customs Department regarding the examination of passengers' baggage have been approved by the Governor-in-Council. By the new regulation the old time trouble with customs officials, the men who brazenly jerk open your valise and with sacrilegious hands tumbled your hair oil, your brushes, your clean shirt and your tobacco pouch into public view will be avoided and peace and quietness will now brood over the land. Hereafter the mail clerk or conductor on a train, or the purser on a boat, will present the traveler with a blank on which the aforesaid passenger will make a declaration as to the dutiable character of the goods in his or her possession, paying the amount of the duty, if any. If the value of the goods be over $500 they will be sent to the nearest custom house. It is also an instruction that where a person is simply passing through Canada, or only make a brief visit, these regulations are to be interpreted in the most liberal sense.

The excitement over the gazetting of the election returns is subsiding. The following will show the order in which the several batches of members elect were gazetted, and will illustrate the objectionable practice now in operation:

	C.	L.
On March 5	5	1
" 12	20	4
" 19	14	3
" 26	1	19
April 2	1	6

The effect of this practice in operation is to give the mass of Conservatives three weeks advantage over the Liberals in petitioning against the seats, and cannot be explained as the result of mere accident. Mr. Pope says the delays are due to the incompetency of returning officers and if this is so, why is it that the incompetency seems to be confined almost exclusively to the returning officers, selected by the government for Liberal constituencies? That is a phase of the subject upon which some light should be thrown.

A protest having been entered against the election of Sir John Macdonald for Kingston he will have to represent both that riding and Carleton for the session. It is believed Mr. Blake will be in a similar fix for West Durham and Bruce. This seat has been offered Mr. M. C. Cameron of Goderich, but he declined it claiming that he can and will redeem West Huron. He was a hard fighter and dreaded as well as detested by the boodler's wing in the Tory camp.

The Last Rites.

The funeral of the late Herman Morris took place yesterday afternoon, and was largely attended. The pall-bearers were Messrs. E. J. Salmon, Geo. Powell, W. Gregory, Morris Moss and two representatives of the Chosen Friends. The funeral services were conducted at the grave by Mr. McGregor for the Foresters, and in Hebrew by Mr. H. Bornstein. The interment took place at the Jewish Cemetery.

The funeral of the late Thomas Richardson took place from Mr. Chas. Hayward's undertaking rooms yesterday afternoon. The remains were interred in Ross Bay Cemetery.

Has Come to Stay.

Mr. Herman Peters, a piano maker and tuner of lengthened experience, has arrived in this city and is ready for business as per advertisement. Mr. Peters has been associated with the piano business for years, and in the best factories only has he spent his time. He comes highly recommended, and we feel sure his work will give satisfaction.

A big real estate deal has taken place in Whatcom, involving the transfer of at least three hundred lots from the townsite proprietors to a syndicate of eastern buyers. The Reveille does not credit the report that the property is being purchased in the interest of the Canadian Pacific.

HARSH TREATMENT.

The Wesleyans on Tonga Island Badly Treated.

Inter-State Law---Severe Snow Storms in the East.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 17.—Advices received from Sydney, per steamer Mariposa, give latest particulars regarding the attempted assassination of Premier Baker of Tonga Island by converted Wesleyan natives. A correspondent of the Sydney Herald, at Suva, Fiji Islands writes under date of February 17th that Mr. Baker believed the attack on him was meant to be a conspiracy by the Wesleyans for the overthrow of the government. He sent for soldiers and a large number of indiscriminate arrests were made. Mr. Baker put the prisoners through the form trial and condemned them to death, and the sentences were executed the same night. Before the sentences were carried out the British vice-consul used his utmost exertions to stop them. Things were growing quieter when the newly-appointed vice-consul, R. B. Leefe, arrived and on inquiry decided that he had no power to interfere. The storm again burst forth with redoubled fury. The Wesleyan Mission College was invaded by armed men, who brutally beat the Wesleyans and wrecked their houses. Mr. Leefe was again appealed to but again refused to interfere. Among six of the earliest condemned to death was an ordained Wesleyan minister, David Finau, a man of the highest position and repute. Six of the executions were to take place the day after the departure of the steamer which brought the above news to Suva Fiji Islands, and thirty more the day following. The French and Germans have sent for men-of-war and urgent representations have been made to the Fiji government for the governor to interpose and depose either Mr. Baker or Mr. Moulton, the Wesleyan Missionary. The Sydney Herald's special from Auckland, N. Z., says: Further news from Tonga states that the Wesleyans are being mercilessly plundered and maltreated by the King's soldiers. The premier does not anticipate any difficulty about French interference in Tonga and is of the opinion that the German jealousy will be aroused by the appearance of the French so close to Sauva.

A PROMINENT CITIZEN DEAD.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 18.—Charles Kohler, senior member of the well known mining firm of Kohler & Frohling of this city, dropped dead from apoplexy on Geary street last night. Deceased was 53 years of age, a native of Germany, and at the time of his death was a member of the present board of education.

THE INTER-STATE LAW.

LOS ANGELES, April 17.—The Board of Trade of this city adopted a resolution asking the Inter-State Commerce Commissioners to temporarily suspend section four of the Inter-State Commerce law, as the fruit and wine crops of California will soon mature, and manufacturers, packers and shippers fear to make contracts.

SNOW STORM IN NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, April 18.—At seven this morning it began snowing hard and at nine about 1½ inches of snow had fallen. It then turned into a sleet storm and at 10 the snow is covered with a crust of ice. Reports from the interior of the state show that the storm is general.

SEVERE STORMS EAST.

CHICAGO, April 18.—Communication between New York and the West has been almost entirely cut off to-day by reason of severe storms in the East.

Enjoy Life.

What a truly beautiful world we live in! Nature gives us grandeur of mountains, glens and oceans, and thousands of means of enjoyment. We can desire no better when in perfect health; but how often majority of people feel like giving it up disheartened, discouraged and worn out with disease, when there is no occasion for this feeling, as every sufferer can easily obtain satisfactory proof, that Green's August Flower, will make them free from disease, as when born. Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint are the direct causes of seventy-five per cent. of such maladies as Biliousness, Indigestion, Sick Headache, Costiveness, Nervous Prostration, Dizziness of the Head, Palpitation of the Heart, and other distressing symptoms. Three doses of August Flower will prove its wonderful effect. Sample bottle 10c. Try it.

Beef for the Royal City.

Saturday's Sound steamer brought over a consignment of beef cattle for dealers in the Royal City. Thirty head were transferred from the Sound steamer on its arrival here and sent over to New Westminster yesterday. It is not stated whether the transportation rates are so excessive, or that prime arrivals are so scarce and difficult to be had, or that the taste of the Royal City epicureans is so fastidious as to have rendered it necessary to go across the Sound for a few days' supply of beef. With all the advantages possessed by the mainland for stock raising it is regarded as surpassingly strange to be compelled to draw life's supplies from abroad.

The Missing Active.

The Captain of the Mountain Chief reports that when leaving Barclay Sound he met two boat loads of Indians, who informed him that the schooner Active, owned by Gutman & Frank, was fifteen miles north of Kynquot. As the Indians spoke their own dialect some doubts were entertained as to their meaning, but it was believed the above information was what they intended to convey. If this is accurate Mr. Gutman, the crew and Indians on board will be safe.

Hymeneal.

Miss Fanny Healy, eldest daughter of Mr. Henry Healy, of Clover Point, was united in marriage with Mr. Charles Williams, of the Bush Tavern, Esquimalt road, on Saturday night last by the Rev. Bishop Cridge.

STEALING OTHERS' THUNDER.

Our Winnipeg telegraphic dispatches of last week announced that the NORQUAY government had adopted the Liberal platform. Such tactics to say the least is despicable. Unable to formulate a policy of their own the Conservatives of Manitoba have had to depend upon the legislative ability of their opponents for the crystalization of a policy that would be acceptable to the people. After a great deal of trouble and caucusing resolved on promulgating the following as leading planks of their platform, and to which is adhibited the signature of thirteen of the members of that party now in the Legislature. The manifesto sets out by stating that "the undersigned Liberal members of the present Legislature, recognizing the necessity of a change in the management of the affairs of the province and the great importance of immediate legislation upon certain matters, will give any government formed from the members of the present House a general support, if they enact at the first session of the Legislature the following legislation:—(1.) Charter lines of railway from the International boundary in the old province to any other point in Manitoba, and further undertake to assert and enforce the rights of the Legislature in this respect, financially or otherwise, as circumstances may require that at the earliest possible moment additional railway facilities may be secured to the province. (2.) A fair Redistribution measure. (3.) A new Franchise act based upon six months residence and one vote for one man. (4.) A simplification and cheapening of the working of the municipal system.

Said government also adopting and carrying out the following policy:—(1.) A curtailment of the expenses of government, so that the largest amount possible may be devoted to relieving the present burdens of the people. (2.) All the assistance within the power of the province to secure the early completion of the Hudson's Bay railway. (3.) An energetic immigration and colonization policy, that will lead to early settlement of our vacant lands and the development of the province.'"

The relative strength of both parties in the Manitoba Legislature is now so evenly balanced that nothing, it is believed, will save the Norquay government from defeat. The defection of Messrs. Brown, Douglas and Robinson increases the opposition or combination strength to 16 members. The selection of Mr. DAVID GLASS, Q. C., for the position of Speaker, did not weaken the combination for he was always considered an independent, whose ambition was such that his principles were of a fluctuating nature—the office and its emoluments regulating the price demanded. This is not the only occasion in which Manitoba's speaker played the Judas Iscariot to his party. During the dark days of the Conservative party—when the "Pacific Scandal" revelations so completely overwhelmed it—the first rat to desert the sinking ship was Mr. DAVID GLASS, then representing West Middlesex. It is held that Mr. NORQUAY does not possess the confidence of the country and a determined effort will be made to hurl him from power. The key to the position is now held by the Independents and so-called Independent Conservatives, who have repeatedly expressed themselves as determined to force a change of provincial policy, and the overthrow of the NORQUAY administration will be regarded as a grand triumph for purity and economy in the management of provincial affairs.

THE clerk of the Private Bills Committee has received 191 applications for Private Bills. Of these seventy-one refer to railway legislation and twenty-three are connected with financial corporations.

IT is now announced that Chief Justice Hagerty, Chief Justice Wilson and Chancellor Boyd were offered the honor of Knighthood at the same time as the title was conferred on Chief Justice Cameron, but they severally declined to accept the distinction.

TRADE WITH THE ANTIPODES.

In commercial and manufacturing circles the hope is being entertained that a considerable trade can be established between Canada and the Australasian Colonies, as well as China and Japan. The development of such a trade will be of much advantage to the Dominion as a whole, and especially so to this province—if advantage by our citizens will be taken of our position. The interests of the Canadian Pacific Railway on the ocean as well as on the land are such as to necessitate extra exertions on its part to push forward for new fields and traffic producing territory. Mr. ALEX. WOODS, Canada's agent general to Australia has already set to work energetically in bringing before the people of that great colony the advantages trade relations with Canada will prove to them. Regarding Mr. WOODS' visit the Sydney Telegraph remarks:

"For some months there have been sundry vague rumors afloat as to a wish on the part of Canada to establish a larger commercial intercourse with Australia. At the same time, there has been no definite notion as to the shape such trade proposals should take. There are those who, living under these sunny skies and breathing the balmy air of this Australia, are apt to look on "cold Canada" with a feeling akin to pity. Out of sheer sympathy, they shrug their shoulders in "cold" disdain, and affect to ridicule the idea of a country whose strong suit would seem to be snow-shoes and tobogganing being possessed of any commercial importance. Why, an untraveled Australian has not the remotest idea of the extent and nature of Canada's exports and general trade! It would fairly astonish such to learn that, where Australia's trade with the United States runs yearly into pretty tall figures, there is scarcely an item, with one or two trifling exceptions, that Canada is not able to supply us with fully as good, and quite as cheap, if not cheaper. * *

To show that Canada's overtures are genuine, and as a proof of her determination to go into the thing thoroughly, it is sufficient to state that the accredited Agent-General of the Dominion, Mr. Alex. Woods, is now in Sydney. His main function is, first, to get the two "strangers," so to speak, introduced, and then assist in causing the introduction to be the stepping-stone to a closer commercial intimacy. It will be necessary, as a preliminary, to exhibit to Australian eyes samples of such goods as Canada now offers to furnish, with the fullest opportunity given to purchasers of inspecting and criticising. Though Mr. Wood's mission is to all the Australian colonies alike, New South Wales is marked out as the first starting point. Here, in Sydney, a Canadian warehouse will shortly be opened, where samples will shortly be displayed and where all required information can be obtained. Mr. Woods' first efforts will be to establish a connection between the leading business houses in both countries and afterwards to aid in developing the mutual trade thus established. * *

As emphasizing Canada's trade efforts in our direction, the completion of the C. P. R. will play no unimportant part. Fast steamers, at both ends, from Montreal to Liverpool and from Vancouver to Sydney and Brisbane, will form a distinct feature of the company's policy. The passage to England is thus expected to be shortened to 28 days against at present 36 or 37 day service, or 32 days, as proposed under the cabled new mail arrangements now being discussed. Should the Canadian Pacific Company secure a division of the English mail subsidies, their course will probably be to drop the inward mails at Brisbane for direct mail shipment on to Sydney, with a subsidiary service to New Zealand ports. Fiji, as already mentioned, would be made a port of call both ways, thus securing an outward freight in the shape of raw sugar. In favor of their proposed mail scheme, the C. P. R. Co. point to theirs as an Imperial route, which in time of war would be entirely free from disturbing influences, such as the possible blockade of the Suez Canal to any hostile power that for the nonce chose to fly a neutral flag. A direct local advantage claimed by the company is that while Brisbane and Sydney would be the virtual termini, the coaling, etc., would all be done in Sydney. Should, at the coming Colonial conference, the Imperial government decide to subsidize the present line, Canada stands pledged to do her part, irrespective of Australia, who will also be asked to contribute. It is further claimed by the present company that a saving of something like £800 a trip could be effected by laying in coal at Vancouver instead of at San Francisco. The effect, of course, of such a service, if carried through, would be materially to back up what present advantages Canada has to offer in the matter of trade with Australia, so that while Canada claims the capability for supplying us with what we now buy from the United States at a cheaper price, she not only offers to buy from us to an extent which America never has done, but she further hopes to do her own carrying to and fro, and in Canadian bottoms, in less time and for less money, thus far, than the United States has been doing for us; so that, after all, the whole matter of Canadian trade with Australia may, by going beyond a mere question of sentiment, have some very decided commercial advantages to recommend it. Present proposals can show a solid backbone of sterling facts which it is hard to gainsay from a business point of view."

UPWARDS of three hundred Northwest farmers have already received seed grain from the government.

BIG trees are grown in Essex County, Ont. One of buttonwood was teamed from Essex to Windsor the other day, which weighed 92,000 pounds or forty-six tons. The load was drawn by a single team on a pair of common trucks.

OUR ENGLISH LETTER.

(Special Correspondence of THE TIMES.)

A NEW ATLANTIC GREYHOUND.

NOTTINGHAM, March 28.—The Inman and International Steamship Co. have just concluded a contract with the well known shipbuilders, Messrs. Laird Bros., of Birkenhead, Liverpool, for the first of their new steamships for the Inman line. The new vessel is to be ready for the passenger season of next year. She will be built of steel with a registered tonnage of 8,500 tons, and will have independent twin screw engines, so that she cannot be disabled at sea, while a special arrangement of watertight longitudinal and transverse bulkheads will make her practically unsinkable under all circumstances. She will be built to Admiralty requirements for an armed cruiser, while at the same time fitted in the most luxurious manner for passengers. Confidence is expressed that she will have a speed superior to anything afloat. This new Inman line will be the first Atlantic mail steamer fitted with twin screws.

THERE IS TO BE NO WAR.

It is an open secret now that home affairs give Ministers more trouble than foreign affairs. Indeed there is, if not a certainty of peace, being undisturbed, a very strong probability of war being averted. We are approaching the end of March, yet this is the month that was to have seen the states of Europe at one another's throats. Wait till the spring, was the ominous prophetic cry of December, and legions of armed men will be found crossing one another's frontiers, or trying to do so. But as the spring has advanced the prospect of war has receded, and to-day finds the English Government almost without external anxieties, and their whole attention riveted upon home worries and responsibilities.

COST OF SUBSIDIZING OCEAN VESSELS.

Correspondence between the White Star and the Cunard Companies and the Admiralty with reference to the subvention of certain vessels of the two fleets for armed cruisers, has been collected in the form of a parliamentary paper. From this document it appears that the Britannic, Germanic, Adriatic, and Celtic, are to be held at the option of the government to purchase or hire, the two first to be valued at £130,000 each, and the other two at £100,000 each. The White Star Company are to build two vessels adaptable as armed cruisers and having a high speed, in consideration of a subvention for five years of 15s. per ton gross per annum. These new vessels, if chartered, are to be hired at 20s. per ton per month without crew, or 22s. 6d. the company finding the crew. The Cunard line boats selected are the Etruria, valued at £310,000; the Umbria, £301,000; and the Aurania, £250,000.

THE GOVERNMENT AND COERCION.

It is stated in well-informed circles that the new Coercion Bill will be a strong one. The Government have sense enough to see that a weak bill would be worse than useless, and as they have determined to try a system of resolute government they will have to seek large and sweeping powers. It is certain that the first reading of the bill will lead to a debate of some length and a division, but the crowning struggle will take place on the second reading. Mr. Parnell, his friends say, intends to throw off the gloves. In other words, he will use every means that the forms of the House allow to defeat the bill, and will be unsparing, ceaseless and relentless in his attacks on the Government. Before the bill is through the Parnellites will signalize their opposition by some dramatic demonstrations, and will probably take means to get suspended.

EXTENSIVE JUBILEE GIFTS IN YORKSHIRE.

To commemorate the Queen's Jubilee the Salt family, of Saltaire, have offered to transfer to the public forty-five private almshouses, providing accommodation for sixty people, with extensive grounds and an infirmary, built at a cost of £40,000, as well as £30,000 left under the will of the late Sir Titus Salt for the benefit of the poor people of the district, as an endowment fund. Already property equal to £50,000 has been given to the public by the same family.

MR. GLADSTONE AT MR. BARRAN'S DINNER PARTY.

Gossip is beginning to ooze out as to the Barran dinner, at which Mr. Gladstone made his speech. The testimony of all the guests is that the veteran was the youngest man of the party. He tripped upstairs more nimbly, conversed more gaily and incessantly, and altogether disported himself in a more juvenile manner than any other of the persons present, and then delivered his long speech with the most delightful elan and without a single note.

THE GREAT REVIEW.

The Queen has fixed Saturday, the 9th of July, as the date of the great review at Aldershot to celebrate the jubilee. It is expected that the muster will reach a hundred thousand regulars, militia, yeomanry and volunteers.

THE LONGEVITY OF ROYAL RULERS.

Among the sovereigns of the world, the Emperor William of Germany, whose 90th birthday fete is to-day being celebrated with extraordinary demonstrations stands at the head of the list in point of longevity. No other living sovereign was born in the last century. The nearest to him in age is the Pope, who was born in 1810, when the Emperor was aged 13. The youngest potentate is Kuang Hsü, Emperor of China, who was born in 1871 and began to wield power in 1875.

EASTERN PRINCES AND THE JUBILEE.

Various eastern nations intend being represented at the Queen's jubilee in June next by princes standing in close relationship to the reigning sovereigns. The Shah of Persia will send his second son, who is his favorite and the heir. Japan will be represented by Prince Komatsu, who is at present in Europe, and who is the uncle of the Mikado. Siam, also is expected to send a relative of the reigning King. Considerable expenditure is meditated in connection with the service in Westminster Abbey, and the keeping of the general holiday on the 21st June. A sum of about £25,000, much of which will no doubt go in fireworks, &c., will probably be put in the votes.

THE TWENTY-ONE HOURS' SITTING—A FRAGMENT.

The following parody on a verse of Edgar Allan Poe's "Raven" was composed during the 21 hours' sitting of parliament last Tuesday:

And the Members never flitting, still are sitting, still are sitting,
Listening languidly to Labby, who is ever on the floor;
And their eyes have all the seeming of a demon's that is dreaming,
While the noonday sun comes streaming softly o'er the wild uproar;
And the Irishmen are swearing that that fierce and loud uproar
Shall continue evermore.

It is now just fifteen months since Mr. Wills' version of "Faust" was put on by Mr. Irving at the Lyceum, and on Friday last week its 350th performance was witnessed by a house almost as crowded as it was on the memorable 19th of December, 1885, the night of its first production.

SOMETHING LIKE A SHEET OF PAPER.

A paper mill in Lancashire has made a single sheet of paper, seventy-two inches wide and seven and three quarters miles long. They have not yet decided what to do with it, but they think that before a great while some spring poet will purchase it to write his annual spring poem on to send to the Victoria DAILY TIMES.

[Passed 13th April, 1887.]

WHEREAS the Council hereinafter mentioned have caused an estimate to be prepared of the Municipal revenue for the year 1887, and of the expenditure required for the service of that year, a copy of which estimate is hereunto annexed.

AND WHEREAS it is expedient to authorise by Bylaw the expenditure of the said revenue in accordance with the said estimate: Therefore—

BE IT ENACTED by the council of the Corporation of the City of Victoria as follows:

1. It shall be lawful for the said Council to appropriate and expend the municipal revenue of the said Corporation for the year 1887 for the several purposes and in the manner named or indicated in the estimate hereunto annexed or as nearly as circumstances permit.

2. All expenditure heretofore incurred by the said Council out of the municipal revenue for the said year is hereby confirmed.

CORPORATION OF VICTORIA.

Estimated Revenue and necessary Expenditure for the Year 1887.

DOMESTIC
SEWING MACHINE
WE LEAD: OTHERS FOLLOW.

Is the justly earned motto of the light-running "Domestic" Sewing Machine. In its mechanical construction it has no rival but many imitators.

The new line of attachments that are now sent with each "Domestic" are specialties that no other machine has.

Do not buy a Sewing Machine because it looks like the "Domestic" and can be had a few dollars cheaper. "The best is the cheapest," and that is the light-running "Domestic."

Justice Waite's Cozy "Den."

Preceded by my host I left the parlor, and at his invitation went up to "the den," as he calls it. He, a man of 70, ran up the long flight of stairs as nimbly as a boy of 17, and as we ascended he explained that this was his workshop. The den is over the dining room, and is an ideal piece of work. Well lighted and ventilated, tastefully carpeted and papered, it is a charming apartment. A bright fire glows and sparkles in the grate, a rich, warm rug is in front of it, and the large table is drawn up close so as to get the full benefit of the heat. The desk is piled with legal looking papers; from out of the half open drawers peep others of the same character, and on a little cleared space stands a half emptied coffee cup.

As for books, there are hundreds of them, all arranged in precise rows in the bookcases and covered in conventional sheepskin. They are all law books; you see no novels or poems, no newspapers scattered around. In every available spot on the walls where the bookcases do not interfere are hung engravings of Judge Waite's predecessors, large photographs of Webster, Clay, Grant, Hayes and other distinguished men. From the top of a huge bookcase a great stuffed owl—that emblem of pompous wisdom—looks wisely down, as if sitting in judgment on the chief justice and his visitors. It is in this cozy room that Justice Waite does most of his work.—Cor. Philadelphia Call.

The Mormon and His Wives.

Among the more well to do Mormons in most cases each wife has a house for herself and children and the common husband passes a week at a time in each establishment. Social etiquette demands that a man shall take with him, into the work, and its festivities the wife with whom he is living at the time at which an entertainment is given. The invitation is therefore addressed to him, and it is understood that only the wife whose roof is at the time sheltering him shall accompany him. The same rule applies to any theatrical performance or amusement.

We were driving with one lady, who, desiring to speak to her husband on some important business, went to the house of another wife, where he was for the time living, and, finding that he was at breakfast with her, left us in the drawing room and, stepping into the breakfast room, transacted her affair, and in five minutes rejoined us with a perfectly placid face. This lady assured us that between herself and the seven other wives perfect love and concord reigned. "If you saw us together you would see how fond they are of me," she said. But though she introduced us to many of her friends and some of her husband's daughters by other wives, she did not give us an opportunity of witnessing proofs of an affection which seems to women of the Gentiles so impossible and unnatural.—Cor. Boston Transcript.

The Richest American Actress.

Lotta owns in her own name and without incumbrances the Park theatre in Boston and the International hotel property in front of that place of amusement. For this she paid $250,000 in cool cash in addition to $25,000 that she paid to Henry E. Abbey for the movable property it contained, such as scenery, furniture, carpets, etc., opera chairs and gas fixtures. The theatre is said to be the best stocked in this country. There are over twelve complete sets of stage furniture, one costing $800, another $350, and so on.

In addition to the scenery in the theatre over forty complete sets were found stored in an outside warehouse. All the "properties" were estimated to be worth not less than $50,000, so that prudential Miss Lotta and her ma, with the wary financial eye, were not driving a bad bargain. In addition to this Lotta has $100,000 invested in different manufactories and dwelling houses in New York and Harlem. She has one house and lot covering nearly a square and originally costing $90,000. She has a house and property on Staten Island, and in Akron, Chicago, Kansas City and San Francisco. Add to all this the $400,000 worth of jewelry and you'll see that the sum of $1,000,000 does not fully represent her possessions.—Boston Letter.

A Sure Financial Sign.

Col. Gabe Wharton two or three years ago was sent to Mexico by a syndicate of New York capitalists, including Mr. Seligman, the famous Hebrew banker, who wanted to build a railroad to that country. Col. Wharton was not pleased with the outlook, and reported to the company that the prospect did not justify the expense. Mr. Seligman, who was much interested, and thought that great fortunes were to be made in that part of Mexico, was considerably disappointed. He thought perhaps Wharton had not informed himself sufficiently on the resources of that country, and so expressed himself.

"Colonel," he asked, "why do you think our railroad wouldn't pay?"

"Well, the fact is, Mr. Seligman," said Wharton, "when I went down there to study the industrial status of the country I was immediately struck by the fact that there were no Jews there. Where there are no Jews there is no business enterprise and no prosperity."

Mr. Seligman was immensely pleased with the keen response.—Louisville Post.

Marston, the English Poet.

Philip Bourke Marston, the English poet, novelist and essayist, whose death occurred recently, came of a poetical family. His ancestor, John Marston, was a poet and dramatist in the Elizabethan days, and his father, Dr. Westland Marston, was the author of several poems of merit. Philip Marston was born in London, in 1850. He was handsome in his babyhood, and Miss Muloch—his godmother, by the way—addressed a poem to his babyship, which began:

Look at me with thy large, brown eyes,
Philip, my king.

Through an accident received while playing his eyes were injured when he was but 3 years old, and his vision was impaired. As he approached manhood he became totally blind. As an author he was successful from the first. He was for years a favorite contributor to the Frank Leslie publications.

Forgetful Young Married People.

A California man was so completely beside himself on his wedding day that he forgot the name of the woman he was about to marry and had to go to her house three times to ask it before he could remember it long enough to get a license. A New York maiden became a wife, and in the course of a few weeks ordered a new bonnet. She did not receive it and sent her husband to ask about it. "The lady has given us no order." He told his bride and she went to see about it. "No bonnet for Mrs. So-and-so at all?" It took a full half hour to discover that the poor child had quite forgotten that she was married and had given her maiden name.—New York Graphic.

Forty Years in Making.

"What do you suppose my wife did yesterday?" asked a Lisbon street man of mysteries. "Don't know," was the reply; "perhaps she got up and built the fire." "No, sir! But I'll tell you what she did do. She finished a patchwork quilt yesterday that she began just forty years ago this winter, when she was a little girl of 4 years. The sewing is in contrast, but not more than would be expected. What is also quite strange, her mother started her to making it forty-years ago and cut out the squares for her, and her mother helped her draw it in yesterday."—Lewiston (Me.) Journal.

C. P. R. After Business.

A San Francisco dispatch, of the 16th inst., states that private advices from the Secretary of the General Post office of Wellington, New Zealand, received that day by the steamer Mariposa state that strong efforts are being made by the Canadian Pacific Railroad representatives to secure the carrying of Australian and New Zealand mails for Canada and England by steamers from these colonies to British Columbia and over the Canadian Pacific road. Their proposition so far has not been favorably received, the Colonial authorities believing that they can secure quicker transit over the United States roads, and are disposed to give a preference to the latter, notwithstanding the strong inducements held out by the Canadian Pacific people.

Presentations.

On the last day of the bazaar, held by the ladies of the Gorge road Methodist Church, Miss Humber, who has officiated as organist at the church since its organization, was presented with a beautiful table scarf. Mr. McConnell, leader of the choir, received a five o'clock tea table, Rev. Mr. Ladner a handsome fire screen and Mr. Flumerfelt a photograph album.

During Mr. John Fannin's visit to Hastings last week, he was tendered a dinner by his old friends, during which he was made the recipient of a handsome gold watch and chain. Although completely taken by surprise, Mr. Fannin replied in a happy manner. Afterwards a very pleasant evening was spent.

"Dead Game" on Her.

What is Woman?
One of Nature's Agreeable Blunders.
—Cowley.

Miss Georgie Hoyt, of the Bijou Opera troupe, is a charming actress, possessed of a rather pretty face, has a figure approaching Power's "Greek Slave," and is always greatly admired by the lords of creation when attired as a prince. On Saturday last the actress in question was presented with a magnificent seal skin cloak and an expensive diamond ring by an admirer in this city—we wish it to be understood that the man was not a Victorian; Victorians are never so soft. The young man has been following the troupe for nine weeks and is a stranger in the city. May he win her is our wish.

The Late Opera Troupe.

The Bijou opera troupe left for the Sound to-day by the Geo. E. Starr, and will perform at Port Townsend this evening. Their season here proved a loss financially of $300, but Mr. Atwood, the manager of the troupe, has hopes in future of being able to regain that amount here and will not forsake Victoria entirely. The troupe, although numerically small, was excellent and should have been more liberally patronized.

The next attraction spoken of is the German comedian, Geo. S. Knight. The date of his appearance will be some time in June, a visit from Portland, where he is now playing, to San Francisco intervening.

No Chinese Employed.

In all contracts hereafter made for constructing the Seattle & Eastern and Seattle & West Coast Railroads, there will be inserted a condition that no Chinese shall be employed on the work. It is the intention of the managers of those roads to employ white labor exclusively in all departments of their work. To secure this, and prevent advantage being taken by employers of Chinese in underbidding contractors who employ white labor only, it has been deemed advisable to insert a stipulation in the construction contracts to the foregoing effect.—Seattle Times.

The Concordia Theatre.

This popular resort for lovers of first class variety entertainment, is not only building up an enviable reputation, but is actually producing the very best talent that can be found on the variety stage. With such artists as the Bickets, Cain and Haywood, Lavender and Thompson, Miss Whitcomb, and last but not least the old favorite Billy Gilbert, its success is certain. A grand entertainment will be given by this company in the Victoria Theatre on Friday night next. *

Granite Creek.

Mr. Wm. Taylor, who returned from Granite Creek last week, informs us that there are about eighty white men and 400 Chinamen on Granite Creek, the Tulameen Creek and other contiguous streams. Granite Creek is about worked out, but there are still a few bench claims that pay small wages. There was considerable excitement about quartz in the neighborhood of Granite City, and several specimens of rock were secured by a Frenchman who was out prospecting.

From the North.

The Barbara Boscowitz arrived on Sunday from Port Simpson, with a large cargo and a few passengers. Prof Jacobson, of Berlin, who has been at Bella Coola most of the winter collecting Indian curios for a German museum, brought down a large quantity. He has also a very fine sample of quartz procured in that neighborhood.

The Place for Bargains.

J. Schi has just opened, in addition to his well assorted stock of Furniture, Carpets, Oil Cloth and Linoleum, a complete line of Crockery, Glassware, Lamps and Bar Glasses, the finest ever offered in the country, at remarkable low prices, having arrived before the advance in freight rates. *

From the West Coast.

The sealing schooner Mountain Chief arrived from the west coast on Sunday, having on board over 250 skins. Nothing had been heard of the schooner Active. Seals were numerous, but owing to the roughness of the sea it was difficult to secure them.

A NEW FIRM.

Messrs. Angus and Gordon Purchase The Business of Mr. A. Ofner.

For some time it has been known that negotiations were in progress between Mr. A. Ofner and Messrs. Angus and Gordon for the purchase by the latter firm of Mr. Ofner's business. As will be observed by advertisement in another column the sale has been consummated and the new firm are already in harness. It is well known that Mr. Ofner, in an unostentatious quiet way, transacted a large and successful business. He now leaves it to enjoy a well earned holiday and comparative ease for many days. The new firm we are persuaded will fully sustain the reputation Mr. Ofner's house has achieved. Both gentlemen are experienced merchants, familiar with the markets of Europe, Britain, America, Eastern Canada and foreign countries. There knowledge of the grocery and provision trade has been acquired after a lengthened experienced in some of the largest houses in the country. Mr. Gordon, as many of our readers are aware, for many years had the management of this branch of the Hudson Bay Company's business in Winnipeg and the Northwest. Having every facility at their control to buy cheap and direct from first hands, their patrons can rely on being supplied with the best the market can produce and at the lowest possible rates. The firm of Messrs. Angus & Gordon will be welcomed by the citizens of Victoria, and we bespeak for them a share of public patronage, well knowing that full justice will be done those who favor them with a call.

Collectors at Work.

The army of collectors, who have undertaken to raise the balance of the fund required for the jubilee hospital, started on their rounds to-day. The city has been divided into fourteen districts, with three collectors to each. A thorough and systematic canvass will thus be secured, and the committee anticipate very little trouble in securing the money required. About $7,000 has already been subscribed, which with promises of several large contributions, brings the amount in sight up to $10,000. The general canvass of the city is expected to produce $5,000 more and when the total of $15,000 has been secured the committee will be in a position to ask for the government grant of $15,000. To secure the maximum sum of $20,000, offered by the government, further efforts will be necessary, and we feel assured that no efforts will be spared to bring the private subscription up to that sum. Our citizens will remember that the condition of the government grant ($15,000 minimum or $20,000 maximum) is that an equal amount be raised by public contributions, and covers themselves accordingly. The question of a site will not be considered until the whole sum has been provided for. Now, gentlemen, come down handsomely.

Cowichan District.

Mr. John M. Evans, a popular and well known resident of Somenos, has yielded to the wishes of a large and influential portion of the electors of the district and consents to become a candidate for the vacancy created by the death of the late Hon. Wm. Smithe. Mr. Evans has issued a card to the electors in to-day's TIMES, in which he defines his views on the questions now engaging attention. Mr. Evans would prove an excellent representative, and we will be glad to hear of his return by a decisive majority.

The other candidates are Messrs. W. J. Sutton and Henry Fry, both supporters of the government. The address of the latter will appear to-morrow. Messrs. Sutton and Fry are residents of the district, and estimable gentlemen in private life. Their political views, however, are unfortunately in antagonism to those principles of right and justice from which the present administration have so far departed. Both candidates are in the field to stay, and in the triangular duel the chances are altogether in favor of Mr. Evans.

The Messiah.

The second performance of the Messiah will be given to-night in the Victoria, with full band and chorus. The object to which the proceeds are to be devoted—the Jubilee Hospital—is of such a philanthropical character that for that reason alone there should not be a vacant chair, while the presentation of the oratorio by our own amateurs is an additional incentive to a liberal patronage. Prof. Sorge is of opinion that the Messiah will be presented to-night with much finer effect than on the last occasion, notwithstanding that it was then given in a highly creditable manner.

West Coast Wrecks.

The Sir James Douglas returned from the west coast on Saturday evening. Captain Devereaux reports the bark Elsinore still in Barclay Sound, awaiting a tug from Port Townsend. The wreck reported at Long Beach is believed to be the same vessel that went ashore half a mile farther north. Mr. Frank remained on the coast to seek tidings of the schooner Active, which had on board, beside the crew, his partner Mr. Gutman and twenty-four Clayoquot Indians, which it is feared may have gone down in the gale.

New Westminster Odd Fellows.

The Odd Fellows of New Westminster, says the Columbian, have decided to celebrate the anniversary of the introduction of Oddfellowship in America, on the 26th inst., by an excursion to Chilliwhack. For that purpose the steamer Adelaide will be chartered. The Vancouver brethren will also attend. In the evening a splendid supper, followed by a ball, will be tendered the visitors by the Chilliwhack lodge.

CHANGE OF BUSINESS.

HAVING SOLD THE STOCK OF MERCHANdise and good will of the Business, heretofore carried on by me to Messrs. Angus and Gordon, I here by thank the public of Victoria, and customers through the country for the liberal patronage they favored me with and solicit a continuance of the same for my successors.

April 15 1887. A. OFNER.

Referring to the above, we beg to say that we will carry on the business in the same manner as our predecessor Mr. Ofner did, and will with an increased stock be enabled to give our customers entire satisfaction in every respect.

ap18 ANGUS & GORDON

TO THE ELECTORS
OF Cowichan District.

GENTLEMEN:

Yielding to the request of many friends who have urged me to come forward as a candidate for the vacancy now existing in this district, I consent to do so. My views are known to most of you, who have resided any length of time in the district.

As being opposed to the reckless policy of the present and late governments—a policy which if persisted in will soon land the province in complete bankruptcy.

I am opposed to the large civil service list, a list which is constantly growing under the spoils system of the present government.

I am opposed to monopolies of all kinds, believing laws should be enacted for the many and not for the favored few.

I am opposed to increasing the Cabinet to five members, as it will entail a large additional expense on the country. For many months the work has been discharged by two ministers.

I am also opposed to the system adopted by the government for borrowing large sums of money. I am in favor of submitting the matter to the people for their verdict.

I shall form as liberal an expenditure of public money, on public works and improvements as the finances of the country warrant. I will insist on all public works being executed by contract, and that the expenditure shall be kept within our income.

There are many other matters which might be mentioned, but I expect to be able more fully to discuss them with the electors at meetings to be held, due notice of which will be given hereafter.

I am, Gentlemen,
Yours truly,
JOHN N. EVANS.
